

We are a non-profit association and utilize the fascilime process to communicate with our members. The members send us their fax numbers for our use. It was be very costly for us to not have this avenue of communication and would limit our ability to communicate with members quickly with industry news.